VESPER DIGITAL / EVIDENCE SOURCES

BEYOND THE TIMELINE.

Canada × Türkiye • Autonomous weapons • Additional records

01 UN NEGOTIATING DOCUMENTS

Read the actual draft language, earlier versions, and meeting papers. This is the place to compare what the proposed ban said before and after the September debate.

United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs | OPEN PRIMARY SOURCE ↗

02 THE RED CROSS POSITION

The ICRC calls for binding limits on unpredictable autonomous weapons and systems designed to target people. This explains the humanitarian case for stricter rules.

International Committee of the Red Cross | OPEN PRIMARY SOURCE ↗

03 WHAT MAKES A WEAPON UNLAWFUL?

Plain-language answers about autonomous targeting, unpredictability, and attacks that cannot be controlled. Useful when explaining the difference between a mistake and a weapon that cannot be used lawfully.

ICRC · Autonomous Weapons FAQ | OPEN PRIMARY SOURCE ↗

04 NEW WEAPONS MUST BE REVIEWED

Article 36 requires legal review of new weapons. The ICRC explains how countries are expected to assess a weapon before adopting it.

ICRC · Legal Review of Weapons | OPEN PRIMARY SOURCE ↗

CLICK THE RED SOURCE LINE TO OPEN THE ORIGINAL DOCUMENT.

VESPER DIGITAL / EVIDENCE SOURCES

BEYOND THE TIMELINE.

Canada × Türkiye • Autonomous weapons • Additional records

05 CANADA’S MILITARY AI POLICY

Canada’s own published defence AI strategy sets expectations for the use of artificial intelligence in military operations, including cases involving lethal force.

Department of National Defence · Guiding Principles | OPEN PRIMARY SOURCE ↗

06 CANADA’S ARMS-EXPORT LAW

Section 7.3 requires Ottawa to consider whether an exported weapon could be used for serious violations of humanitarian law or human rights. This is the domestic legal test relevant to foreign sales.

Export and Import Permits Act · Section 7.3 | OPEN PRIMARY SOURCE ↗

07 WHY THE 2026 UN TALKS MATTER

The official UN meeting page identifies the March and August–September negotiating sessions and the mandate given to the group studying lethal autonomous weapons.

United Nations · 2026 Meeting Overview | OPEN PRIMARY SOURCE ↗

CLICK THE RED SOURCE LINE TO OPEN THE ORIGINAL DOCUMENT.

BEYOND THE TIMELINE.

Canada × Türkiye • Autonomous weapons • Additional records

08 CANADA–TÜRKIYE DEFENCE EXPORTS

Carney’s October 23 announcement explicitly describes joining Canadian and Turkish defence companies for production and export opportunities abroad. It adds context beyond the joint statement.

Prime Minister of Canada · October 23, 2026 | OPEN PRIMARY SOURCE ↗

09 THE VISIT WAS PLANNED IN ADVANCE

The October 6 announcement spells out defence and security as priorities for Carney’s later visit, alongside trade, investment and energy. This is the pre-trip public record.

Prime Minister of Canada · October 6, 2026 | OPEN PRIMARY SOURCE ↗

10 THE RED CROSS ON CIVILIAN RISK

A detailed legal analysis explains how opaque AI decisions, autonomous targeting, limited control and unpredictable outcomes can endanger civilians. Supports a deeper discussion after the video clips.

ICRC · Autonomous Weapons and IHL · Position Paper | OPEN PRIMARY SOURCE ↗